BIGG Tip: How Much Does the Sound of Your Voice Impact Your Message? – Research shows a speaker's voice mattered twice as much as the content of the message. What's the key to good voice quality? Proper breathing, according to Bob Corff, voice coach to the stars. When you breathe right, your stomach pushes out when you breathe in and sinks back when you breathe out. Take a deep breathe before you speak for BIGG success. Get more tips from BIGG Success here.
