BIGG Tip: Make Better Decisions by Knowing This... Are you a Promoter or a Preventer? The authors of Focus say Promoters play to win and focus on the best case. They jump at opportunities, so they need a Plan B. Preventers focus on the worst case and play to not lose. They risk missing good opportunities. Therefore, they should consider rewards, not just risks. Know your type for better decisions and BIGG success! Get more tips from BIGG Success here.
