Vermilion Advantage News

Registrations are Now Open for the Leadership Tomorrow Class 32 - The purpose of Leadership Tomorrow is to be able to provide Vermilion County with a continuing resource of men and women - equipped with community knowledge and leadership skills, challenged to get involved - shaping the future and direction of our community's potential. This is done with 9 sessions, generally every other Friday (8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.), starting with a one-and-a-half day Retreat (locally, not overnight) starting in February 2020 and ending with Graduation Day in May 2020. Education, experience and community service are emphasized (see more information at www.vermilionadvantage.com/leadership-tomorrow). This class will also include community history and leadership training. We are preparing for future leadership of the community with informed, accurate information and awareness. This is a County-wide program. Applications are available at our office, or by calling 217-442-6201, at a link at the bottom of this web page, or by emailing Annie Monyok at annie@monyokleadershipcoaching.com. Applications are due January 15, 2020. Scholarships are available, For more information, contact Annie Monyok.

We look forward to seeing you there!

BIGG Tip - Can You Save Money Without Depriving Yourself? Yes, if you define saving properly. Saving is really a timing decision. It's about the trade-off between now and later. Ultimately, it's a decision about what will make you the happiest - enjoying your money now or stashing it away so you can enjoy it more tomorrow. The secret is to avoid impulse purchases so you can shop for better deals It leads to BIGG success!! Get more tips from BIGG Success here.
