BIGG Tip: Why Problems are Like Tomatoes - Problems need to be solved every day. How can you prevent feeling like every problem is urgent? Author Jon Wortman labels problems in three categories: lions, black holes, and tomatoes. Lions are urgent because they must be tamed immediately. Black Holes are long-term because they need time, planning, and a team to solve. But most problems that come up are tomatoes because they need time to ripen before you'll know what to do. When you give them time to grow, one of three things will happen: It goes away. It has a simple solution. It becomes a challenge that needs a plan. Take control of your day by giving small problems time to ripen, it leads to BIGG success. Get more tips from BIGG Success here.
