BIGG Tip: 2 Ways to Balance (Which Most People Don't Think About) - Many of us do work which doesn't yield immediate, tangible results. It's helpful to plug in projects with quick, concrete payoffs. For instance, you could paint a room for instant gratification or take on a major clean-out-and-clean-up project. Balance both the nature of your payoffs and the length of time before you realize them so you stay motivated for longer-term projects. It leads to BIGG success! Get more tips from BIGG Success here.
