BIGG Tip: How to Get More Done - Identify targets of attention, says author William Klemm. These targets are tasks which (1) challenge you, and (2) serve your interests. If these qualities aren't there, make them be. For example: If a task doesn't stretch you, follow up with one which will. Get the first one done so you can work on the one which fires you up. It leads to BIGG success! Get more tips from BIGG Success here.
