DACC Hosts 7th Annual Manufacturing & Technology Day
More than 300 Students Attended

DANVILLE -- Danville Area Community College in conjunction with the Vermilion Vocational Education Delivery system hosted the 7th annual Manufacturing and Technology Day on October 12, 2018 from 9-11 am.

Over 300 students attended from grades 7&10 from schools including Bismarck-Henning Rossville Alvin, Georgetown Ridgefarm, Oakwood Junior High, Hoopeston Area High School, and Westville Junior High. Students began their journey at the Bremer theater with an opening ceremony/kickoff and then headed out to 3 interactive sessions at the DACC Tech Center. Students participated in hands on presentations from Tyssenkrup Crankshaft, Towne Machine, Deco, and a variety of DACC faculty.
